Cup final VIP tickets offered for charity ‘auction’

A lifelong Bradford City fan has organised the donation of three pairs of the best tickets available at Wembley for Sunday’s sell-out Capital One cup final between Bradford City and Swansea to a Yorkshire charity.

Steve Jordan, who is a partner with BTG Asset Consulting in Leeds, secured the donation from Begbies Traynor Group, and all the proceeds from the sale of the VIP ‘Silver Club’ Wembley tickets will go to the Bradford Burns Unit. The former auctioneer is inviting sealed bids for each pair of tickets by email before the deadline of 6pm on Wednesday 20 February with the tickets going to the three highest bidders.

“It is going to be an amazing occasion and a lot of fans, including me, want to remember the 56 supporters who perished in the terrible Valley Parade fire 28 years ago. This is a great opportunity to benefit the burns unit that was set up after the fire to help victims of serious burns,” said Steve Jordan.

“My colleagues at Begbies Traynor were more than happy to donate the tickets to such a worthwhile cause. These are tickets for great seats on the second tier at Wembley, and they cost over £100 each.

“The pairs of tickets will go to the highest bidders to email me at bradfordburns@begbies-traynor.com by 6pm on Wednesday, and every penny will go directly to the charity,” he said.

Bidders are required to provide their name, address and a contact number in order to confirm the offer on Wednesday, comply with Begbies Traynor's terms and conditions and arrange payment before the tickets are handed over.

The tickets are in block 205 at Wembley Stadium, all bids are to be emailed to bradfordburns@begbies-traynor.com and bidders are requested to clearly state the price offered for either the package of all six tickets together, or a pair of tickets. Please email for full terms and conditions of ticket use.
