Deloitte launches smartphone tax web application

Deloitte, the business advisory firm, has launched uktaxmobile.com, a smartphone tax web application which allows users to keep abreast of the latest tax news, rates and Deloitte commentary, at the touch of a button.

uktaxmobile.com includes all the latest tax news, weekly podcasts covering key tax developments, articles from Deloitte's tax experts and tax rates and tables, in addition to other useful features.

Stuart Cottee, Deloitte partner and head of corporate tax for Newcastle and Leeds, says: "We're delighted to announce the launch of our new tax web application. As smartphones become increasingly popular and a key communication channel, Deloitte's web application offers instant access to the latest developments in tax."

uktaxmobile.com is available free of charge and is easy to access by simply navigating to uktaxmobile.com on a smartphone web browser and saving it as a favourite.
