Eddisons puts former Hallmark Cards HQ catering equipment, office furniture and warehouse racking up for sale

Due to the relocation of Hallmark Cards to a new Bradford head office on Dawson Lane, Leeds-based surveying practice Eddisons is auctioning a number of its surplus assets.

Eddisons' online auction on behalf of Hallmark Cards, which is now live, includes high quality catering equipment, card racks and shop fittings, warehouse racking, office and breakout furniture, storage, garden and picnic benches.

Jason Pinder, director of machinery and business assets at Eddisons, said: "With its headquarters in Kansas City, USA, Hallmark is a worldwide brand with a hundred year heritage and is also one of Bradford's best known businesses. We're pleased to be acting for them.

"There's always healthy demand for good quality catering equipment and warehouse racking so we expect there to be plenty of interest in these lots from businesses in Yorkshire and further afield."
